Community Development Project Manager
Job Description

Background

The Madisonville Community Urban Redevelopment Corporation (MCURC) is a nonprofit community development corporation focused on improving the quality-of-life for all in Madisonville. Our mission is to advance comprehensive community development in the neighborhood. Our vision is a diverse, vibrant, thriving Madisonville: Soul of the City. Our role in the neighborhood is to lead economic development and community engagement efforts while advancing health and wellness, arts and culture, beautification, and education and youth strategies in partnership with other organizations, businesses, and neighborhood groups.

General Description of the Position

The staff person in this position will work across disciplines to increase Madisonville’s vitality through economic development efforts and neighborhood activation, while participating and leading a wide variety of community development projects. The project manager will work with community groups, business owners, and partner organizations to improve and draw attention to the neighborhood business district and increase participation in neighborhood activities. The Community Development Project Manager reports to the Executive Director.

Responsibilities

- Maintain and enhance relationships with stakeholders in the neighborhood business district, including the formation of a Madisonville business group. Manage support programs for businesses.
- Develop programs to assist existing Madisonville businesses such as marketing efforts and promotional events and assist Madisonville entrepreneurs with developing their businesses.
- Work with businesses and resident groups to improve the physical appearance of the neighborhood business district.
- Maintain comprehensive list of available commercial property.
- Research and apply for grants to assist with creative place making, public art, and business district improvement efforts.
- Develop a programming and sponsorship plan that increases demand for economic investment.
- Lead initiatives to improve transportation infrastructure and programming in the neighborhood focusing on pedestrian, cycling, and mass transit. This includes the promotion and development of trails, walking paths, bike infrastructure, and bike racks in coordination with multiple community partners. This also includes partnering on health programming to increase physical activity in the neighborhood.
- Lead small and large group meetings to gain consensus and to advance neighborhood initiatives.
- Work with MCURC staff and residents to plan large community-based events.
- Attend and participate in community programs and meetings.
- Assist resident-led groups to plan events, tackle projects, and take on neighborhood projects.
- Assist the Executive Director with special projects.
• Other duties as assigned.
