

Have you ever said,
“Wouldn’t it be great if we _____?”

OVERVIEW

The City of Cincinnati City Manager is hosting the 2017 Engage Cincy Challenge Grant program. For this second year of the grant program, the City seeks your most innovative and impactful ideas for improving positive engagement & interaction within our city. City of Cincinnati residents are encouraged to submit an application. Grant awards will help winners successfully implement their plans.

AWARDS & PRIZES

Up to five grants, up to $10,000 per grant to develop, launch & promote your project

PURPOSE

To improve connections with our neighborhoods, our city, and each other

Once launched, your project may act as a catalyst for interaction with new people beyond family or the usual social circles, with local government, with social service organizations/activities, or may simply help neighbors keep an eye out for each other. Your big idea might even prompt meaningful interaction with people we see as different from ourselves – encouraging the growth of empathy, and recognition of Cincinnatians’ diverse experiences and shared humanity.

Good entries will:

Be new, innovative and transformative

Be scalable, repeatable and sustainable

Have potential magnitude of impact, neighborhood/city-wide
